Small-Kitchen Measuring Checklist

Measure once, buy the right size. Fill this in with a tape measure before you shop for organizers, racks or small appliances.

DRAWERS

For utensil trays, bins and liners

- ☐ Inside width — in / cm
- ☐ Inside depth (front to back) — in / cm
- ☐ Usable height under the opening — in / cm
- ☐ Hinges, rails or dividers in the way — in / cm
- ☐ Longest utensil you store — in / cm

CABINETS & PANTRY SHELVES

For containers, risers, bins and turntables

- ☐ Inside width — in / cm
- ☐ Shelf depth — in / cm
- ☐ Height between shelves — in / cm
- ☐ Door swing / lip at the front — in / cm
- ☐ Tallest jar or box you store — in / cm

UNDER THE SINK

For pull-out organizers and mats

- ☐ Cabinet inside width — in / cm
- ☐ Space left of the drain pipe — in / cm
- ☐ Space right of the drain pipe — in / cm
- ☐ Clearance below the drain trap — in / cm
- ☐ Door opening (hinges, center post) — in / cm

COUNTER & SINK

For dish racks and small appliances

- ☐ Free counter width beside the sink — in / cm
- ☐ Free counter depth — in / cm
- ☐ Sink opening, shorter side — in / cm
- ☐ Clearance under upper cabinets — in / cm
- ☐ Distance to nearest outlet — in / cm

FRIDGE SIDE & WALLS

For magnetic racks and wall storage

- ☐ Clear width beside the fridge — in / cm
- ☐ Magnet sticks to the fridge? (Y / N)
- ☐ Free wall space (width x height) — in / cm

Before you buy

- Measure the inside, not the outside: walls, rails and hinges eat space.
- Leave a little clearance so drawers and doors still open smoothly.
- Write down your tallest and widest items, not just the space.
- Compare with the current product listing before you buy; sizes change.